2. Decisions adopted on the reports of the First Committee

52/416. Rationalization of the work and reform of the agenda of the First Committee

B[42]

At its 92nd plenary meeting, on 8 September 1998, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the First Committee,[43] recalling its resolution 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 and bearing in mind the need to enhance the efficient functioning of the First Committee:

(a) Decided that, as from the fifty-third session of the General Assembly, the First Committee would:

(i) Make every effort to conduct and conclude its substantive work with the most efficient use of time in not less than thirty meetings and in a time-frame not exceeding five weeks;

(ii) Conduct its work by combining the existing phases of the programme of work: "Structured discussion of specific subjects on the adopted thematic approach on disarmament and international security agenda items" and "Consideration of all draft resolutions submitted under all agenda items", provided that sufficient time was allowed for informal consultations and discussions on all draft resolutions;

[41] A/52/340/Add.2.

[42] Consequently, decision 52/416, in section B of the Official Records of the General Assembly, Fifty-second Session, Supplement No. 49 (A/52/49), vol. II, becomes decision 52/416 A.

[43] A/52/612/Add.1, para. 4.

(b) Decided that the Chairman of the First Committee would continue consultations with regard to the revitalization, rationalization and streamlining of the work and reform of the agenda of the Committee in all its aspects and report to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session;

(c) Decided to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-third session the item entitled "Rationalization of the work and reform of the agenda of the First Committee".

52/492. Report of the Disarmament Commission

At its 92nd plenary meeting, on 8 September 1998, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the First Committee,[44] recalling its resolution 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 and bearing in mind the need to enhance the efficient functioning of the Disarmament Commission, decided that:

(a) The Disarmament Commission should continue to play a unique role within the mechanism on disarmament as the only body with universal membership for in-depth deliberations on relevant disarmament issues;

(b) As of the 2000 substantive session, the substantive agenda of the Disarmament Commission should normally comprise two agenda items per year from the whole range of disarmament issues, including one on nuclear disarmament; the possibility of a third agenda item would be retained if there was a consensus to adopt such an item; parallel meetings of its subsidiary bodies should be avoided;

(c) Annual substantive sessions of the Disarmament Commission should last for three weeks;

(d) Substantive agenda items should be considered in the Disarmament Commission for three years; other options for the duration of the consideration of an item, according to its specificity, could be adopted by consensus on an ad hoc basis;

(e) The regional groups should be urged to make possible the early election of the chairmen of the subsidiary bodies, preferably at the organizational session of the Commission in the autumn, so as to allow them to conduct inter-sessional consultations on the respective subjects; it is desirable that continuity of chairmanship of the subsidiary bodies be maintained throughout the consideration of a substantive item;

(f) Further optimization of the procedures of the Disarmament Commission, according to circumstances, could be a continuing consensus-based process, inter alia, in the context of the review of United Nations disarmament machinery.

(a) Took note of the report of the Secretary-General on office accommodation at the Palais Wilson,[54] the comments and observations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[55] and the oral statement made by the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on 16 March 1998;[56]

(b) Approved the proposal of the Secretary-General to accept the offer of the Swiss authorities to place the office accommodation at the Palais Wilson in Geneva at the disposal of the United Nations;

(c) Noted that the cost estimate of the move to the Palais Wilson would amount to 5,805,000 United States dollars, of which the contribution from the Government of Switzerland would amount to 3,846,000 dollars and the balance of 1,959,000 dollars would be covered from existing resources available under section 27F of the programme budget for the biennium 1998-1999 for the provision of accommodation at Geneva;

(d) Expressed appreciation to the Government of Switzerland for its offer to grant rent-free accommodation at the Palais Wilson to the year 2000;

(e) Requested the Swiss authorities to ensure the extension of the rent-free agreement beyond the year 2000, and invited the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to have the assurance of the Swiss authorities in that regard;

(f) Decided that a cost-benefit analysis on the use of the existing conference facilities available at the Palais des Nations in Geneva should be submitted to the General Assembly at the next part of its resumed fifty-second session;

(g) Also decided to consider the proposal to build two additional conference rooms at the Palais Wilson in the light of the above-mentioned report;

(h) Further decided to consider the issue of office accommodation at its fifty-fourth session in the light of the decision to be taken in respect of the International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction.
